QUESTIONS :

1- How did you get into criminal law?

I thought it was fascinating in law school and it was the only subject that kept me awake.

2- What type of cases do you enjoy defending the most and why?

Circumstantial identification cases especially involving DNA. I love the analysis.

3- How did the practice of criminal law change you?

It made me more grateful and more skeptical.

4- If there is one thing only you would like to see change in criminal law, what would it be?

The section 278 regime.

5- What advice would you give to your younger self when you first started practising criminal law?

Talk to practitioners.

6- How do you deal with bad work days?

Eat badly.

7- What do you think of Zoom court?

I love it.

8- Any embarrassing court story you're willing to share?

Not really. lol

9- Who is your role model/inspiration in criminal law?

Alan Gold

10- What's your favourite song?

Firth of Fifth by Genesis

11- How do you maintain work life balance and how do you deal with the stress of the job?

Family, community and exercise.

12- What is your biggest legal inspiration?

Helping others.

13- What do you do outside of the law?

A lot of volunteer work outside the legal community, travel and read.

14- What would your defence bar colleagues be surprised to learn about you?

I enjoy the business of law as much as the practice of law.
