QUESTIONS :

1. How did you get into criminal law?

One of my first cases was a domestic assault where my client was innocent, but not equipped to defend himself. Helping him inspired me to support others so no one has to struggle with the legal system due to lack of knowledge and resources.

2. What is your biggest legal inspiration?

My biggest legal inspiration comes from the desire to solve the complications associated with the legal system. I am inspired when I am able to assist clients in navigating through the system by educating and empowering them about their rights. I take pride when they feel satisfied and comfortable with their options — it's the fuel that encourages me to keep continuing my work.

3. What would your defence bar colleagues be surprised to learn about you?

I have been practicing law and helping the community navigate the complicated justice system for over 22 years. My main practice is criminal law and I have had the privilege of defending a wide variety of cases. I enjoy pushing legal boundaries to achieve justice and satisfaction for my clients.
