

I look forward to working with the CLA and all involved parties in York Region to achieve our collective goals. I intend to facilitate better communication to the criminal bar about York region procedures, practises, and programming, advocating for the implementation of a Gladue court and restorative justice approaches and greater mentorship.