

I am an appellate lawyer and partner at Daniel Brown Law LLP. I am also the Chair of the Probono Inmate Appeal Program, which assists unrepresented inmates before the Court of Appeal for Ontario, and an adjunct professor at Osgoode Hall and the University of Toronto Faculty of Law. But most importantly, I am a dedicated CLA member.

I have served three prior terms as a Toronto Director. I am asking that you re-elect me for a fourth.

As a board member this past term, I chaired the professional regulatory and litigation committees, together with dealing with many of the collective challenges that has faced our members and the board. I also acted as the CLA representative to the Court of Appeal.

I devoted countless hours of pro bono work to the organization, including representing the CLA on interventions to the Supreme Court of Canada and advancing regulatory claims on behalf of the membership.

I look forward to continue these efforts on behalf of the membership as a Toronto Director and ask for your support.
