I hereby apply for membership in the Criminal Lawyers' Association and certify that I have substantial interest in the practice of criminal law and am presently enrolled in an accredited law school/serving my articling term. I understand that student members are required to notify the CLA office once they have passed the bar. In order to maintain a membership with the CLA after passing the bar, I must then be a practicing criminal defence lawyer. Those that end up not becoming practicing criminal defence lawyers will have their membership lapsed with no refund.
