

Frank Addario is a principal of Addario Law Group. He has a trial and appellate practice, with an emphasis on constitutional litigation. Frank is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and the American Board of Criminal lawyers. He is the 2016 recipient of the G. Arthur Martin Criminal Justice Medal. He has been counsel on over 45 cases in the Supreme Court of Canada, appearing on seminal cases like R. v. Jordan, R. v. Suberu, R. v. Ruzic, World Bank v Wallace and Little Sisters Book and Art Emporium v. Canada. Frank is a proud participant in the Ontario Legal Aid program.