

Maija Martin practises solely in the area of criminal defence at both the trial and appellate levels. She appears regularly before the Ontario Court of Appeal and the Nunavut Court of Appeal and has appeared at the Supreme Court of Canada for both individuals and interveners. She is an active contributor to the criminal law community in Ontario and Nunavut as a mentor to new lawyers through the Criminal Lawyers' Association, Women in Canadian Criminal Defence, and the Osgoode Hall Law Journal Alumni Association. She has been a Toronto Director for the Criminal Lawyers' Association since 2021.