

MARIE HENEIN

Marie Henein is a Founding Partner of Henein Hutchison Robitaille LLP, and is recognized as one of the country's top litigators. Her practice focuses on civil litigation, criminal litigation, commercial litigation, mediation and arbitration. She has been interviewed repeatedly by the media, written for the Globe and Mail, and is a sought-after public speaker.

In 2013, Ms. Henein was a recipient of the Laura Legge Award from the Law Society of Upper Canada and the Law Society of Upper Canada Medal. In 2017, she received The Law Society Medal for outstanding service to the administration of justice. In 2023, Ms. Henein was the chosen recipient of the G. Arthur Martin Medal. Most recently in 2024, she was awarded a Doctorate of Laws by the Law Society of Upper Canada.

Marie Henein authored her best-selling memoir 'Nothing But The Truth', and is co-editor of Martin's Criminal Code, Martin's Annual Criminal Practice, and Martin's Related Criminal Statutes; and the Associate Editor of the Canadian Criminal Cases.