

Emily Lam

Emily Lam practices criminal law, regulatory and professional discipline, conducts workplace or independent investigations, and works with First Nations communities on a number of projects. She is a co-founder and director of the Sentencing and Parole Project, a not-for-profit organization that provides EPSRs to Black and racialized people, and a co-founder of GROWL, Group of Racialized Ontario Women Lawyers.