

Sandra Kimberg is an Associate Manager at Schofield Macchia and Associates. Sandra obtained her law degree from the University of Oxford with First Class Honours and she currently holds an MA (Oxon) from the University. She was called to the bar in 2018 after articling with another criminal firm. Her current practice consists of criminal trial work with a focus on Charter litigation, sexual assault, and drug and firearm offences. She has appeared at the Ontario Court of Justice, Superior Court of Justice, Court of Appeal for Ontario and Federal Court. She has also practiced in the areas of extradition, judicial review and criminal appeals.