

Susan Pennypacker

Called to the Bar in 2004, Susan's practice focuses on criminal and quasi-criminal defence. Susan maintains a busy trial practice. She believes that triable cases should be tried, remains open-minded about the applicability of good old fashioned defences, and believes wholeheartedly in remedies for Charter breaches. Susan has been an organizer, speaker and presenter at a number of Continuing Legal Education events. In addition, Susan has been a speaker and a judge in student events and mooting competitions.
