

The Legislation Committee monitors proposed legislative changes in the field of criminal law and responds to Parliamentary invitations to attend before legislative committees to make representations on behalf of the CLA. Many of these invitations are at very short notice. Any CLA member who is interested in attending before Parliamentary Committees generally or who is interested in a particular issue that is before Parliament should advise the Chair of the Legislation Committee.